MILL TROUBLES AT AN END

NEW FIND IN ELKHORN DIS-TRICT-UNION OIL WELL. -

Three hundred and fifty-one flasks of quicksilver, worth $45 per flask, or $15,795, were sold by the Sacramento Gold Mining & Milling company and forwarded to Philadelphia from this city Thursday night. The sale was consummated through the W. A. Nelden Drug company, which, it is understood, has contracted to take this product of the Sacramento's retorts regularly, from now on.

From the mercurial ores of the Sacramento mine an average of about three flasks a day of pure quicksilver have been coming from the two retorts in operation, until a short time ago, when one of the retorts cracked. Three new ones have been officed, however, and upon their arrival a few however, and upon their arrival a few raff own an interest in part of this group which, however, is not included in the incorporation. fall that the company undertook to reduce this character of ore and for a great part of the time only one small retort was kept in operation and that one pot continuously. Notwithstanding that, nearly, if not quite $31,000 worth of "quick" has been produced.

During the past month or more not in the company's gold chanding mill through the miners encroaching too much upon the zone carrying the cineats up the zinc shavings upon which the gold is collected to such an extent hat much of the gold in solution was

NEW GAS AND OIL WELL, That On Union Company's Ground

Going Down Rapidly. The prospecting well of the Union Gas & Pipe Line company, in the Farmington field, is going down at a merry cilp and without a hitch so far. It was started about ten days ago and news of mere than ordinary significance is expected from it at any time now.

J. H. Bigger, the company's local manager, stated yesterday that during Thursday the pipe was dropped down an even hundred feet, and while he was not disposed to fell the exact depth so far attained, he said that most substantial headway had been made from the very

-SOME BUYING BY FOREIGNERS

-LONDON MARKET SHOWS A WHOLESOME TONE.

New York, May 13.—The stock market made some stand against depression today, and early in the day some recovery was effected from yesterday's sharp declines. The firmness was helped by some light buying for foreign account, London continuing to show a wholesome tone, with a declining Total sales for the day, 384,700 shares. wholesome tone, with a declining money market. The news overnight of the fixing of the amount of the New York Central debenture bond issue at $50,000,000 instead of $30,000,000, as was understood yesterday, was not stimulating to the general market, owing to the inroads upon money resources indi-
